- Stronger patrols have been established on the islands of Riems, Koos and Greifswalder Oie. The official explanation is said to be that the veterinary-medical laboratory located on Riems has obtained permission to use the two other islands. The laboratory is to move to Greifswalder Oie, production of serum is to continue on Riems, and Koos is to be set up as a pasture for the animals. Koos was formerly a bombing area for airforce units located at the Ladebow airfield near Greifswald.
